

A Day of Sounds

*As the sun rises, animals rise
The games have begun,
And everything awakes
The day fills with sounds
Such as hums and howls
That shake the ground
So listen close
As the sunsets and the moon rises
Most things go to rest
Bats fly by
Bobcats snarl and hiss
Coyotes howl and laugh
Listen, the night sounds have begun
All will repeat again another day
Another day of sounds will fly by*
