

Living

Something that can grow, move, have babies, use nutrients, and breathe.

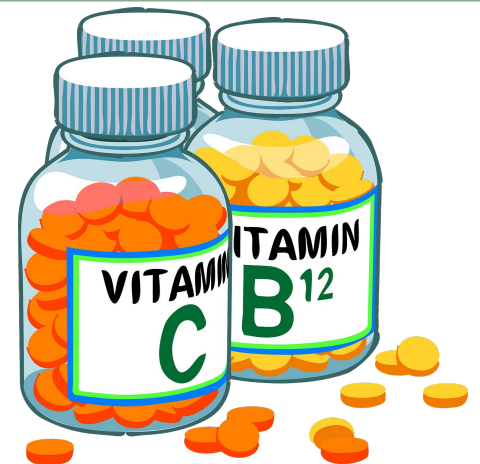

Nonliving

Something that cannot grow, move, have babies, use nutrients, or breathe.

Nutrients

Things in food or water that living things need in order to make energy, grow, and reproduce.

Food

Mostly solid items that animals eat in order to live.

Reproduce

A way to make more plants or animals in nature.

